

Text 1, Fiction: - The Lost Puppy

Emma was walking home from school when she heard a soft whimpering sound. She looked around and saw a small puppy hiding under a bush. It looked scared and hungry. Emma gently picked it up and carried it home. Her parents helped her find the puppy's owner by posting a photo online. The next day, a grateful family came to pick up their lost pet.

Text 2, Non-Fiction: - Why Do Leaves Change Color?

In autumn, the green leaves on trees begin to change color. This happens because the trees stop making chlorophyll, the chemical that makes leaves green. As the chlorophyll fades, other colors like red, orange, and yellow appear. These colors were always in the leaves, but hidden by the green.

Text 3, Vocabulary & Inference: Liam and his sister

Liam tiptoed into the kitchen and opened the fridge. He grabbed the last piece of cake and smiled. Just as he turned around, he saw his sister standing in the doorway with her arms crossed.

Text 4, Fiction: Tom and the Lost Puppy

One sunny afternoon, Tom was walking home from school when he heard a soft whimper. He looked around and saw a small puppy hiding under a bench. The puppy looked hungry and scared. Tom gave the puppy some of his sandwich and gently picked it up.

He decided to take the puppy to the animal shelter nearby. The lady at the shelter thanked Tom for being kind and promised to find the puppy a safe home. Tom felt proud of what he had done.
